

Automated Extraction of JPF Options from Code

Abstract

The goal of this project is to develop a tool collecting all JPF options and writing them in popular data formats like XML and wiki. The result of using this tool is a list containing all potential options: key and type of each option (with annotations if available).

Contact

student: Wojciech Luks <wojciech.luks AT gmail.com>

mentor: Oksana Tkachuk <oksana.tkachuk AT gmail.com>

co-mentor: David Bushnell <David.H.Bushnell AT nasa.gov>

Repository

The sources for this project are available from a Mercurial repository at <http://code.google.com/p/jpf-autodoc-options/>

Description

Project documentation is available at http://code.google.com/p/jpf-autodoc-options/wiki/1_Introduction